(5) Besides the letter grades,
a) I: Incomplete grade; Even though the student is successful in passing the class, students who were absent due to a sickness or other reasons but have completed all their assignments, the final exam will be made within 3 business days of the final exam decided on by the teacher. A student, after receiving an I as a grade, has to receive a grade within the 15 days given for the grade entry to AYSIS by completing all remaining assignments. Otherwise the I grade will become an FF for credit classes and an F for non-credit classes. However if the student's excuse is forcing them to elongate the time period, they may by applying to their teachers and by the approval of the directory the assignment may be elongated until one day before the next registration date. An I given in this way has to be turned into a letter grade at most one day before the next registration date. Otherwise the I will become an FF. This transformation is made automatically on AYSIS.

b) NA: Discontinuity grade; Given to the students who haven't attended class or haven't complied to rules of attendance. Students who have received an NA may not take the final exam. When this note is calculated, it is considered as an FF.

c) P: Passing grade; Successful students in a non-credit class receive this grade.

c) F: Failing grade; Unsuccessful students in a non-credit class receive this grade.

d) M: Exemption Grade; Given for classes the student has taken the exemption exam for and passed.

e) T: Transfer grade; Given to transfer students who have taken an equivalent class as the class this grade is given to. Is also a grade given to students who are double majoring and are taking classes of equivalence in both majors. As of the 2014-2015 academic year the grade T will not be used for any adaptation classes.

f) W: Withdrawal grade; Given to classes which the student withdrew from during the time given for withdrawals to the students. This grade is given when the students wishes to withdraw from the class with the approval of the teacher and withdraws within the first seven weeks of the start of the class. A student who has received an FD, FF, F or an NA in a class that they must repeat cannot withdraw from that class. This rule is applied regardless of whether a class is mandatory or an elective. Permission is not given to withdraw from one-third of the course load. Only 2 during the undergraduate, 6 in the graduate withdrawals can be made in a term only with the approval of the teacher and counselor.

g) E: No-Entry grade; Classes in which the evaluation process hasn't been done, and grades haven't been applied receive this grade. When the student registers for a class, they automatically receive an E until the teacher evaluates the class. The final grade is transformed by the teacher from an E to a letter grade and E's which haven't been evaluated automatically receive an FF.
(6) No student will receive a lower letter grade than what number grade they have received. A student who has received a CC or higher are automatically considered passing in that class. Students who have received a DC or a DD will be considered passing if the student's 3rd and fourth semester GPA is a minimum of 1.80, 5th and 6th semester minimum 1.85, and 7th and 8th semester a minimum of 1.90 (undergraduate). For associate's students minimum of 1.80 in the beginning of 3rd semester, and 1.90 in the beginning of the 4th semester. An FD, FF, NA, I, E, W will be failing regardless of the students' GPA and the student must retake these classes. If the student wishes to do so they may also retake DD or DC classes with the approval of their counselors.

(7) Students who are about to graduate, with the condition of not being left in a class for discontinuity;

a) Have been successful in every class but has an FF or FD from only one class; is given a chance to take a one class exam. But students who, even though take this exam and do not receive an AA, they will not be given a chance to this exam. Single class exam chances are given by the concerning directory on the date decided by the directory, one month before finals week. For the student to attend the single class exam, they must fill out a request form stating that they would like to attend the single class exam and apply to the deanery/principal. For the student to be considered successful, the student has to receive at least a DD or 50/100 on the exam. Students who aren't successful in passing the single class exam can apply with a request form to take the single class exam on every semester.

b) Has been successful in every class that he/she needed to take and has taken all their mandatory classes; however their GPA is lower than a 2.00 and they would like to raise their GPA; for undergraduate students, the last 2 semesters and graduate students last 4 semesters, a chance is given to them to raise their grade in one class only. But if the student, even if he/she gets an AA on the exam but still their GPA will not be higher than a 2.00, then these students will not be given the chance to do this application. These students have to do their written applications next year. For the student to attend the exam for increasing their GPA, the student must apply with a request form and state that they want to attend this exam. The exam is done within one month before finals week.

c) Students who are unsuccessful on the GPA increasing exam can attend the exams on every exam date by applying with a request form.

Objection to Exam Scores

Article 23 - (1) An objection can be made to an exam score five days following the publishing of the grade on AYSIS with the written form to the deanery or the principality in person. The exam grade that was objected to will be looked over by the teacher within three days of them knowing about the appeal. The investigation that the teacher led will be sent to the dean or principal in written form. The dean or principal will send the objection to the Department of Student Affairs.
Cumulative Grade Point Average

Article 24 - (1) The CGPA is a number calculated by the multiplication of AKTS credits with the coefficient numbers the student received in that semester from all their classes and then divided by the worth of AKTS credits received that semester. GPA is calculated from the point the student starts university and is calculated in the same way by considering all the classes. Whether it be semester or total GPA, all grades from AA to FF are all calculated. For repeated classes, the grade received on the second time is used.

(2) GPAs according to Local credits: A Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) is calculated by multiplying the letter grade the student received from that class by the credit value of that class in the semester and then dividing the total by the total credit hours. With the result it is shown by a two digit number after the comma. The Grade Point Average is calculated by taking all the classes the student has taken since year one, and calculated in the same way. May it be cumulative or general, the GPA is taken into account from AA to FF. For the classes that have been repeated, the last taken class’ grade is shown in the GPA.

Graduation diploma, and diploma supplement

Article 25 - (1) For the student to graduate they must have a GPA of at least 2.00 over 4.00. For the students who have been successful in all their classes and education, a diploma and a diploma supplement in English is given by the concerning legislation.

(2) If the program the student is studying in name's different than when he/she entered, then if the student wishes the name of the program when he/she entered can be written on the diploma instead. On the diplomas; The Republic of Turkey Identification Number, Date of Graduation, Diploma Number, and Graduation Term is written. On the diplomas; the signatures of the dean and rector (faculties), and the signatures of the principal and rector (higher education schools and career higher education schools) are found.

High Honors and Honors Students

Article 26 - (1) Students who have taken the minimum class-load that have a minimum average of 3.50-4.00 and no NA, I, FF, FD, E, W and F, are considered high honors students and students who have an average between 3.00-3.49 without the letter grades mentioned above are considered honors students and these students are given certificates stating that these students are either high honors or honors students. In the case of a transfer student becoming valedictorian along with a student who has attended all the semesters in the university, then the title of valedictorian will be given to the student who has attended all the semesters in the university.

For the student to be eligible for application for the double major or minor program, the student must have been successful in passing all their classes before application and their GPA must be at least 3.00 when they are applying and must be in the top 20% of his year. If the student's GPA is above 3.00 but he/she isn't in the top 20% and his/her basis points are equal or larger than the department he/she is applying to, then the student can apply for the double major program. For the minor program the student's GPA must be at least 2.50 and the concerning departments must see the student fit for the application.
(6) The student must lead his/her own major while also separately doing their second major or minor programs. The student's own major graduation isn't affected by the second major or minor program.

(7) A separate transcript is made for the second major or minor. Both education programs' counted classes are determined by the concerning departments and the choice of accepting the student belongs to the concerning board of directors. These classes are shown on both transcripts with the grades the student received and is also used in determining the second major average. The student has to complete any classes that isn't the same as their first major in their second major. If the amount of AKTS of these classes are less than 60, the counselor must give electives to the student so that the total reaches 60 AKTS.

(8) A student cannot sign up for more than one double major or minor while also studying their own major.

(9) The amount of AKTS a student will be receiving from their second major or minor cannot go above 42 AKTS in a semester.

Academic Success and Graduation from a Double Major and Minor

Article 41 - (1) The student may drop out of a double major or minor if they wish to do so.

(2) A student who has completed their own major and has completed all the classes of the second major and have a GPA of at least 2.00 will receive their second major diploma. A student who has completed their own major and has completed all the classes of the minor program and have a GPA of at least 2.00 will receive their minor program certificate showing all the classes they took.

(3) A student who has completed their own major and received the right to their diploma will receive their second major diploma only when they complete all the classes of the second major. For students who are successful in a minor program will receive a certificate with the Rector's signature and the name of the concerning program on it. The diploma which student's who complete the second major program receive will have the name of the double major program on it. Same thing goes for the minor program.

(4) If students of a double major or minor program have completed their own major; and if they cannot complete their second major or minor program, the condition of them paying a fee for registration will be applied however they will be given extra time to do so.

(5) If the student has completed a second major or a minor program before their graduation from their own major, they will not be receiving their diploma or certificate until their graduation.

(6) Students who drop their second major or minor will be given a transcript showing their successes in the classes they took in their dropped second major or minor program.

(3) Students who have any of the documents relating to the exam types listed above have to apply to the Foreign Language Higher Education School Principality three days before the YDYS with their request form and their documents of they would like to be exempt from the YDYS. Students who will be considered fit by the Foreign Language Higher Education School will be exempt.

(4) Students who fail the YDYS and their documents aren’t accepted and who have to take the preparation course will be placed in a level by their score in the YSTS. The Presidency of the Foreign Language Program may change a student's level if they see fit within the first two weeks of the courses.

(5) Students who have been successful in a different foreign language course in a different higher education institution within Turkey last academic year and who can prove their success with documents will be exempt from the concerned foreign language course. However if the document was taken before one year ago, then the student has to take the YDYS,

Rating of success in the foreign language preparation program

Article 43 - (1) The rudiments related to the ratings of success in a foreign language preparation program are as follows:

a) The Status of Success of the English Prep Course Students: their attendance, project works, quizzes, SLICE (document which contains all their portfolio works), ELAT (mid-terms and finals that are made within the end of every level), TOEFL-IBT score at the end of the year, are the factors which all add up to the status of the student's success. 80% attendance is mandatory in order to enter the final exam. More than 4 mid-cycle exams are made in an academic year to keep track of the students.

b) The passing grade of the student is weighed over a total of 100 points and are calculated for as follows: Period-1 Level success is averaged as 10%, Period-2 Level as 20%, Period-3 Level as 30% and Period-4 as 40% and in the end the student receives their final grade over these criteria. The passing grade is considered 70%. The final exam (TOEFL-IBT) is weighed as 30% over 100% of the total score.
c) The status of success of the Spanish, Russian and Arabic Prep Course students: their attendance, project works, quizzes, SLICE (document which contains all their portfolio works), ELAT (mid-terms and finals that are made within the end of every level), TOEFL-IBT score at the end of the year, are the factors which all add up to the status of the student's success. 80% attendance is mandatory in order to enter the final exam. More than 4 mid-cycle exams are made in an academic year to keep track of the students.

(2) For a student who is studying in the English Prep Program, their GPA must be 70/100 at the end of the academic year. This condition doesn't apply to students who receive 79 or higher on their TOEFL-IBT exam at the end of the year.

a) For a student who is studying in the Applicative Spanish Translation, Applicative Russian Translation and Arabic Prep Program, their GPA must be 70/100 at the end of the academic year.

(3) Students who have received 60 or higher in their English Prep Program gain the right to attend the first year of the program they were educated for. However the students who have gotten between 60 and 69 are mandated to take the extra English supplement class that is given to them. These classes are done outside of the days and hours of the education program of the student. Students in this situation have to take an end of term exam for their supplement classes and have to get 70 or higher. Students who still aren't successful have to take these supplement classes until they pass.

(4) When the general results are announced, the successful students are put into three categories of A, B and C. Each category's numeral value is determined before the beginning of the academic year. It is then announced who was unsuccessful or was successful in passing the course.

(5) Students who weren't successful can attend the foreign language summer school. Students who are successful in the general assessment after the summer session can take the YDYS and if they pass can register for their departments/faculties.

(6) Students can file an objection within the first five business days if they think that their final exam wasn't marked correctly.

Failure in the Foreign Language Prep Course

Article 44 - (1) For students who are registered for an associate's or undergraduate which teaches in a foreign language that are unsuccessful in their two semesters of preparation school can, if they wish, retake the two semesters of foreign language preparation. If they are unsuccessful they will be placed into the same program that is taught in Turkish by OSYM according to the official newspaper copy 27074 dated 4/12/2008 titled Foreign Language Education in Higher Education Institutions and Rudiments that will be Obeyed in an Education in a Foreign Language's directory article 7.
