IAU REGULATIONS FOR POSTGRADUATE STUDIES

Completion of Doctoral Dissertation ARTICLE 25 – * Doctoral dissertation committee is assigned by the institute executive board based on the suggestions made by the department. The committee is made up of five faculty members, three of which are from the dissertation monitoring committee and two from higher education institutions other than IAU. If the dissertation has two co-supervisors, both supervisors must be included in the committee. The institute executive board assigns two substitute members, one from IAU, and one from another higher education institution.

NOTE: Institute executive board reserves the right to assign committee members other than those suggested by the department.
