International Day for Solidarity with Palestinian People

"Building peace requires absolute respect for the fundamental rights of the Palestinian people to acknowledgement of their history and culture and their right to forge their future for themselves."

Message from Irina Bokova, Director-General of UNESCO, 29 November 2016

The International Day of Solidarity with the Palestinian People is observed by the United Nations on or around 29 November each year. In 1947, November 29 UN General Assembly adopted resolution 181 (II) which provided for the establishment in Palestine of a "Jewish State" and an "Arab State", with Jerusalem as a corpus separatum under a special international regime.

Palestine has been a member of UNESCO since 2011. UNESCO Chair in CDGE commemorated this important day, with the participation Representatives of Palestinian Community in Turkey and Palestinian Students at IAU, accompanied by cultural events and palestinian dance performance of dabke.
