IMPORTANT:

The students should be aware of the fact that depending on the evolution of the COVID 19 pandemics worldwide and in Turkey, both the Orientation programme and the courses for the upcoming semester/Academic year will be offered online and or as blended education. For this reason, we kindly ask all conditionally accepted students to strictly follow up all indications offered by our Office and relevant authorities for their health and safety.

Moreover, we would like to draw attention to the following recommendation issued by the Turkish Higher Council of Education (YÖK): Since the COVID 19 global epidemic is a dynamic process, currently ongoing, the existence of other measures such as whether students will have opened flights, whether there are travel restrictions, quarantine practices, should be monitored and travel planning and applications should be made taking into account the decisions, circulars, warnings and recommendations of the relevant ministries, institutions and organizations both in Turkey and in the home country.
