Language & Culture Of Turkey

Did you know that the city of Istanbul spans two continents and over 3,000 years of history? Once the seat of both the Byzantine and Ottoman Empires, Istanbul is now the cultural and economic capital of the Republic of Turkey as well as its largest city, with an estimated population of 15 million. Istanbul has seen the rise and fall of great empires and the ongoing transformations wrought by rapid migration and urbanization. Culturally diverse, historically rich and artistically inclined, Istanbul is an intriguing mix of East meets West. The main spoken language in Turkey is Turkish.

Cinema

are ready for a movie?

Cinemaximum is the most popular cinema and you will find it in every district and in most Shopping Centres in Istanbul. The closest cinemas near the Florya campus are Cinemaximum Aqua Florya and Airport Cinemas. Mars Sinema is setting the world standard technology, comfort and service beyond expectations and the standards in each new cinema complex. They also brought the RealD 3D film technology to Turkey, and created a brand new three dimensional cinema experience for the cinema admirers which had never been done before.

Isfanbul Theme Park:

If you have an addiction to excitement then you must visit ISFANBUL Theme Park. Experience the thrills of rides including the Breath Taker, featuring speeds that reach 110 kilometers per hour in 3 seconds. Feel free to scream! The Family Coaster is another option, taking you 30 meters up at 80 kilometers per hour. And that's to only name a few of the excitement awaiting you at Vialand!

Istanbul Aquarium Florya:

The Aquarium is a member of the World Association of Zoos (WAZA). It is a two story building of no less than 22.000 m²! There are 64 tanks with 6.800 m³ water, displaying 17.000 land and sea creatures of over 1.500 species. Dazzled already? Hang on, there is more. By following a geographical route you travel on a route that hosts 16 themes and a rainforest going from the Black Sea towards the Pacific.

Miniaturk:

If you want to explore the most important sights within a short time, than you must visit Miniaturk Istanbul. It is exhibiting a selection of 131 model of archeological artifacts made of polyurethane with a scale of 1:25. Miniaturk, located by the Golden Horn, is not limited to modern Turkey or to the Turkish culture, but brings together traces of a co-existence of several civilizations in the whole old Ottoman realm with all the values that has made Anatolia what it is today. It is the symbol of civilizations dating as far back as 3000 years ago where peace, tolerance and justice prevailed.

Food & Beverages

How to maximize our eating pleasure while minimizing what we spend? Here are a few specific tips that will help you avoid having to get more cash wired from home:

As a backpacker on a budget, the Turkish word you should immediately commit to memory is “büfe”. A type of corner store found throughout Istanbul, büfe is the spot for your daily fix of cheap food, from döner (meat roasted on a vertical spit) to soup (usually mercimek çorbası), as well as panini-like grilled cheese sandwich known as “tost” or “kuru fasulye” (white beans in a tomato sauce). The Black Sea area is also famous for another delicious yet budget friendly item called “pide” (sometimes referred to as Turkish pizza). Fatih Karadeniz Pidecisi is not only one of the best and most authentic pide spots in Istanbul, but is also located in an atmospheric neighborhood rarely visited by tourists.

Don't leave Istanbul without having a grilled fish sandwich at the Bosphorus. This sandwich is made from a grilled fish fillet inserted in a half-loaf of fresh baked bread along with some “Salata” (lettuce, tomatoes and onions), prepared in traditional boats tied to the quay in Eminönü.

Nightlife

The nightlife in Istanbul is legendary and you definitely shouldn't miss it. When the sun goes down and the lights go on, Istanbul becomes a big scene for nightlife with incredible various options. The city switches into a vibrant scene of night life action. The summer nightlife moves outdoors and towards the water. Large waterside bars and clubs are open all along the Bosphorus and restaurants and bars open their gardens, terraces, even move locations. The popular summer locations are Ortaköy, Kuruçeşme, Arnavutköy along the Bosphorus, and Asmalımescit area off İstiklal street. In the winter the same clubs, bars and restaurants move indoors and into their winter locations. Top areas for nightlife are along İstiklal street and Nişantaşı.

Sightseeing - Adventure

Did you know that during the Ottoman Empire Istanbul was known as Constantinople? Conquered by Mehmet II the city was declared as the capital of the Ottoman Empire which was the capital of the Roman and Byzantine empires before. Explore this glorious historical heritage and discover amazing sites covering the entire tapestry of the city's history.

Are you curious about the life in a palace?

Topkapı Palace

The construction of Topkapı Palace was launched in 1478 by Sultan Mehmet the Conqueror who took the city in 1453. The Palace was built upon a 700.000 square meters area on an Eastern Roman Acropolis located on the Istanbul Peninsula between the Sea of Marmara, the Bosphorus and the Golden Horn. In 1923, it was renovated and converted into a museum that has today become one of Istanbul's most popular sights.

Dolmabahçe Palace

Built in the 19th century, it was one of the most glamorous palaces of the world. It was designed by Karabet Balyan, the head architect of Sultan Abdulmecit in a neo-baroque style. It has also a great importance for Turkish people, because the first President of Turkey Mustafa Kemal Atatürk lived and passed away in this building. The palace houses the largest Bohemian chandelier in the world, which was a gift from Queen Victoria. Today the palace is converted into a museum, the ceremonial hall and the gardens are available for private reception and as well for weddings.

Hagia Sophia

It's said that when the Byzantine Emperor Justinian entered his finished church for the first time in AD 536. The Aya Sofya (formerly the Hagia Sophia) was the emperor's swaggering statement to the world of the wealth and technical ability of his empire. Through its conversion to a mosque after the Ottoman armies conquered Constantinople to its further conversion into a museum in the 20th century, the Aya Sofya has remained one of Istanbul's most cherished landmarks.

Basilica Cistern (Yerebatan Sarnici)

The Basilica Cistern - sunken palace is one of Istanbul's most surprising tourist attractions. This huge, palace-like underground hall, supported by 336 columns in 12 rows, once stored the imperial water supply for the Byzantine emperors. The most famous column bases are known as the Medusa stones in the northwest corner with their Medusa head carvings. A visit here is very atmospheric with the columns beautifully lit and the soft steady trickle of water all around.
