SCHOOL EVENTS

- November 20th / 21st- As part of the Professional Training and Development Program, the first 2-day sessions were delivered in our Conference Hall by 2 professionals in the field of teacher training, Tony Gurr, and JT Hill. The very fruitful training program was a part of an ongoing collaborative work with an internationally recognized publishing company, Pearson.

Both days involved 3 sessions (of 75 minutes) for the whole group of teachers.

Thursday 20th November- Theme - Motivation, Student Engagement and Teacher Learning (09.30-12.50) The school's goals of introducing a performance improvement model across the school.

Friday 21st November- Theme - Peer Observation and Instructional Coaching (09.30-12.50) How teachers can support each other through peer-coaching, mentoring, effective questioning and reflection on classroom practice.

- November 24th- Students organized a surprise celebration for all academic staff to mark the Teachers' Day. This event, which took place at the Conference Hall, included several stage performances such as a mini concert and a play. Each and every event was staged by our beloved students.

- December 30th – A New Year Party was organized by the students in collaboration with their instructors. The party included attractions such as music, live performance by students and beverages. Our New Year tree which was creatively made out of books collected from the school library had been set up by our students a week before the party. With excellent decorations, our school lobby lighted up with sparkles which induced a spirit of the season in everyone.

- In order to create awareness on the importance of learning English, IAU Prep School Young Entrepreneurs Club organized two Professional Awareness Panels for which they invited professionals who are successful in their fields.

In the first panel dated December 12 2015, the guests were three successful young lawyers - Taha Polat GEÇMEZ, Gökhan ALPERTUNGA and Mustafa Kemal BALTA , who enlightened our students on the Role of English in Modern Law.

The second event was a conference which was delivered by Mehmet Tayfur DOĞAN- the manager of Ground Operations Standards and Documentation. He emphasized that learning English is inevitable in the field of Civil Aviation.

SCHOOL NEWS

- A Book Donation Campaign, spear-headed by one of our teachers, is being organized by our students at the English Prep. School. Publishing houses such as Pearson and Oxford, have also indicated their willingness to support by providing printed materials including books.

- Our School Magazine "Aydın Young Pens" has been given a start off for its first issue for this academic year. Our students improve their English while writing articles, making interviews and dealing with the other issues of the School Magazine.
- November 22th - Assis.Prof.Dr. Necmiye Karataş, lecturer Tülay Billor and lecturer Sema Okay participated in An ELT Symposium themed "What Is It Like To Be An English Language Teacher?" . The symposium was held at Istanbul Kültür University.
- Accreditation: Istanbul Aydın University – English Preparatory School has initiated an accreditation process which will eventually lead to Our School being accredited by an international Accreditation Body (PEARSON ASSURED).
- Peer Coaching: As a product or outcome of one of our workshops delivered by a distinguished trainer (JT Rehill) on Peer Coaching, A Peer Observation Program has been initiated in our Prep School and scheduled to kick off from the 3rd Track starting in February.
- "THE ENGLISH Speaking Club Campaign" is being implemented again this year. The campaign encourages students to converse amongst themselves in English both inside the classroom and more so outside of the classroom in a more interactive social setting. This Speaking Club activity is being put together by Joey Guertin. Some of the underlining reasons of this activity is to provide students the required environment where they could express themselves confidently thereby improving their oral English communication skills. This year's intermediate level students are going to be mentors in the club.
