

PhD Proficiency Exam Application

- The proficiency exam is held in two stages: written and oral. Students who failed the previous exam must take both exams during this semester.
- Due to Covid-19 pandemic, exams are planned to be held between 08.06.2020 - 04.09.2020.
- Written exam phase;
 - The written phase of the exam will be held in our university. Written exam will be carried out by taking all precautions on the date determined by the department.
- Oral examination phase;
 - If all the jury members agree to come to our university, all precautions will be taken and the oral exam will be held face to face.
 - In the event that all of the jury members can not come to the university, oral exam can be held through Adobe Connect, the program of our university, on condition that it is recorded.
- For the students abroad;
 - Written exam (take home exam) and oral examination can be done through Adobe Connect for students who are abroad and whose entrance to our country is not available.
 - These students will be able to freeze registration if they wish.
