Yerel Basılı Gazetelerin İnternet Gazeteciliğine Dönüşümü ve Örnek İnceleme

Transformation of Local Print-Media into Internet Journalism and Case Study

ÖZET

Türkiye’de yazılı basın internet gazeteciliğiyle önemli değişimler geçirmiş; yerel basın da bu değişimden uzak kalmamıştır. Yerel basındaki değişimin başlıca nedenleri olan gelir kaynakları ve bağımsızlık konuları, yaşanan sorunların başında gelmektedir. Dolayısıyla yerel basındaki sınırlı sermaye yapısıyla kâğıt baskılı yerel gazeteler kapanmaya başlamıştır. Bu bağlamda, çalışmanın problem cümlesi olan; ‘Yerel basılı gazeteler, yerel haberler yaparak, yerel reklam ve ilan olanaklarıyla kaliteli, bağımsız gazetecilik yapabilir mi?’ sorusuna, yerel bir gazete araştırması ile karşılık aranmıştır. Bu amaçla, 1987-2024 yılları arasında yayımlanmış olan Çanakkale Olay gazetesinden tesadüfi örnekleme seçilen sayılar, haber türleri ve konuları, reklam- ilan sayıları, sermaye yapısının içeriği gibi farklı kriterlerle incelenmiştir. Araştırmada, bir metindeki değişkenleri ölçmek amacıyla, sistematik tarafsız ve sayısal olarak yapılan, içerik analizi yöntemi kullanılmıştır. Ayrıca çalışma betimleyici analiz yöntemi kullanılarak, başlıklardaki dilsel yaklaşım çözümlenmeleriyle desteklenmiştir.

Araştırma sonuçları, bağımsız, basılı bir yerel gazete olan Çanakkale Olay gazetesinin yerel haberler ve reklam gelirleriyle, kamu yararına yerel gazetecilik yapılabildiğini göstermiştir. Ancak teknolojiyle hızlanan dijital rekabet ortamında reklamların azalmasıyla, Basın İlan Kurumu’nun ekonomik desteğinin giderek daha fazla önem kazandığı tespit edilmiştir.

The Dean's Office of the Faculty of Communication and the Department of Journalism visited the Anadolu Agency (AA). Within the scope of the meetings, potential collaboration steps were evaluated regarding applied projects for students, industry-academia meetings, and jointly conducted educational activities.

In the seminar organized in collaboration between the Giresun Provincial Directorate of National Education and Istanbul Aydın University, participants came together to shed light on studies in the field of Guidance and Psychological Counseling. In the training delivered by Dr. Hüseyin Kazan, faculty member of the Journalism Department at Istanbul Aydın University, the themes “Discover Yourself, Shape the Future, Transform Through Effective Communication” were addressed. Within this framework, topics such as how to discover one’s potential through inner awareness, how to consciously guide one’s future using structured methods, and how to create transformation through communication skills were discussed.

In collaboration with the Trabzon Ortahisar District Directorate of National Education and Istanbul Aydın University, a gathering was held at the Trabzon Science High School Conference Hall to add value to the journey. In the training delivered by Dr. Hüseyin Kazan, a faculty member of the Journalism Department at Istanbul Aydın University, the critical role of communication in school management, building trust in teacher–parent relationships, sustainable success in institutional communication, and skills for managing difficult communication situations were comprehensively addressed.

Within the Erasmus Mobility Programme, Prof. Osvaldo Garcia from the University of Vigo in Spain visited the Faculty of Communication and, in coordination with YMUAM, delivered training to students on new media, VR, design, and artificial intelligence.

Within the scope of the Erasmus Mobility Programme, Prof. Osvaldo Garcia from the University of Vigo, Spain, who visited the Faculty of Communication, was a guest lecturer in the New Media Master's Programme course "Research Methods in Communication Sciences."
