ADEL NAWEEN RAHMATI-English Language and Literature- Afghanistan

It has been very intense for the past few months here at Istanbul Aydin University. My name is Adel Naweem and I'm from Afghanistan studying Bachelor degree of English literature.

When I arrived here at Aydin I really had nice feeling and I was really felt at home the environment, people, staff are really nice and friendly. It really touched my heart and I haven't faced a single problem in registration process as an international student.

I'm really lucky to have such a university where it's really easy to get in touch with people. Aydin University is just a unique and nice place where you get to see different kind of amazing people, Aydin really provides opportunities to show your skills and talents and that's really special about it.

Aydin gave me the opportunity to show my talent, skills and I performed several magic shows at different occasions.

I'm finding it really easy and fun to study now because my university offers really fun and different ways of learning.
