OUR EURIE PANEL

As part of EURIE 2026, the panel titled “Artificial Intelligence and Turkish Language Teaching in the Axis of Digital Transformation” addressed the effects of artificial intelligence technologies on teaching Turkish as a foreign language, digital transformation processes, and innovative teaching approaches. The panel was held with the participation of the Director of İstanbul Aydın University DILMER, the Head of the Education Department of the Yunus Emre Institute, and the Chair of the Turkish Language Education and Teaching Committee of the Turkish Language Association (TDK). During the panel, productive discussions were carried out on technology-supported applications in Turkish language teaching and future-oriented academic perspectives. The event was successfully completed through the exchange of knowledge and experience among the participants.

OUR ACADEMIC TURKISH AND FIELD LANGUAGE WORKSHOP

The "Workshop on Current Issues and Solutions in Teaching Turkish to International Students," organized to contribute to the academic development of our students, was held with the participation of 40 academics specializing in the field from 21 different universities.

The workshop addressed current problems encountered in teaching Turkish as a foreign language; fruitful discussions were held on solution proposals for teaching processes, academic approaches, and examples of best practices. Enriched by the exchange of knowledge and experience from participants from different universities, the event successfully concluded as an important platform for strengthening academic collaboration.

CENTER TILE WORKSHOP

In the "Tile Workshop" event, organized to contribute to the cultural and artistic development of our students, participants had the opportunity to get to know traditional Turkish tile. In this hands-on workshop, students improved their manual skills by creating their own designs and had the opportunity to experience the artistic values of Turkish culture. The event was completed in a productive and enjoyable manner with the active participation of our students.
