CHAPTER THREE

Management Bodies of the Center and Their Duties

ARTICLE 7 – Management bodies of the Center

(1) The bodies of the Center are:

- a) Director,
- b) Administrative Board,
- c) Advisory Board.

ARTICLE 8 – Director

(1) The Director is appointed for three years from among the University's full-time teaching staff upon the Rector's proposal and the Chair's approval. A Director whose term expires may be reappointed with the Chair's approval.

To assist the Director, one of the Administrative Board members is appointed as Deputy Director upon the Rector's proposal and the Chair's approval. The Deputy Director's term is also three years. When the Director is not on duty, the Deputy acts on their behalf. If the Director cannot be on duty continuously for more than six months, a new Director is appointed.

ARTICLE 9 – Duties of the Director

(1) The duties of the Director are as follows:

- a) To plan and carry out activities aimed at achieving the Center's objectives,
- b) To represent the Center and chair the Administrative Board and the Advisory Board,
- c) To determine the agenda of the Administrative Board and implement the decisions taken,
- ç) To ensure coordination and supervision among units within the Center,
- d) To communicate and conduct activities with national and international organizations,
- e) To carry out the administrative affairs of the Administrative Board and the Advisory Board,

f) To submit the annual activity report of the Center and its affiliated units to the Rectorate.

ARTICLE 10 – Administrative Board

(1) The Administrative Board consists of at least five persons, including the Director, appointed from among the University's full-time teaching staff upon the Director's recommendation, the Rector's proposal and the Chair's approval. The term of office of board members is three years. Members whose term expires may be reappointed. If a member leaves before the end of the term or is assigned outside the University for more than six months, a new member is appointed to complete the remaining term.

(2) The Administrative Board meets at least once a month upon the call of the Director. When necessary, the Director may call the Administrative Board to a meeting.

ARTICLE 11 – Duties of the Administrative Board

(1) The duties of the Administrative Board are as follows:

a) To prepare and implement the Center's work program, develop it in line with needs, submit it to the Board of Trustees through the Rectorate, and implement the approved programs,

b) To establish project and research groups within the Center and evaluate their work,

c) To determine principles for cooperation with University units, and with national and international persons, institutions and organizations, in matters related to the Center's fields of activity, including for courses, internships, certificate and similar programs, and to submit these to the Center Directorate,

ç) To prepare the Center's annual activity report and submit it to the Center Directorate.

ARTICLE 12 – Advisory Board

(1) The Advisory Board is selected for three years from among academic staff of the University or other universities, and expert persons working in private organizations or—if they wish—public institutions and organizations active in subjects related to the Center, upon the Rector's proposal and the Chair's approval. The Advisory Board consists of at most fifteen members. Members whose term expires may be reappointed. The Director chairs the Advisory Board.

(2) The Advisory Board meets ordinarily once a year and, when necessary, extraordinarily upon the call of the Director.

ARTICLE 13 – Duties of the Advisory Board

(1) The duties of the Advisory Board are as follows:

a) To convey its evaluations to the Center Directorate in order to increase the effectiveness and efficiency of the studies carried out by the Center,

b) To submit its opinions and recommendations to the Center Directorate within the framework of the purposes specified in Article 5 of this Regulation.
