Panel 1: Who's Next, If Any? – Identifying Potential Candidates for Future EU Enlargement

This panel will examine the EU's perspective on Ukraine and its integration prospects, while also addressing the often-overlooked Western Balkans and Türkiye. Discussions will focus on the current state of EU enlargement, evaluating the potential for candidate countries to join the Union and whether merit-based accession remains viable.

Speakers:

- Dr. Şuay Nilhan Açıkalın, Visiting Fellow, MCC
- Dr. László Dux, Head of the EU Common Foreign and Security Policy and Enlargement Department, Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade
- Dr. Tamás Péter Baranyi, Director for Strategy, Hungarian Institute of International Affairs
- Prof. Dr. Tarık Oğuzlu, Professor of International Relations and Dean of the Faculty of Science and Literature, Istanbul Aydın University
- Assoc. Prof. Cigdem Nas, Economic Development Foundation (IKV)

Moderator: Damille Devenyi, Researcher, MCC – Center for European Studies

10:30 AM - 11:30 AM

Panel 2: Different Speeds to Avoid a Crash – Is an EU À la Carte the Only Way to Keep It United?

This discussion will focus on the concept of a multi-speed Europe and whether an "à la carte" approach, including opt-outs on issues like migration, is necessary to accommodate the diverse political, economic, and cultural realities of EU member states while avoiding internal friction.

Speakers:

- Rodrigo Ballester, Head of the Center for European Studies, MCC
- Dr. Kálmán Pócsa, Head of the Center for Constitutional Politics, MCC
- Prof. Dr. Sanem Baykal, Professor of EU Law, TOBB Economy and Technology University
- Prof. Dr. Meltem Müftüler Bac, Dean of Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, Professor of International Relations and Jean Monnet chair, Sabanci University

Moderator: Noémi Pálfalvi, Director, MCC – International Directorate
